

Northwest Splendor

October 24-27, 2010

Sponsored By Tropical Harmony Inc.

Day 1

We depart Seattle and travel to the center of the State of Washington to Cashmere, at the foot of the Cascade Mountains. Cashmere is the home of an internationally famous fruit candy industry (Applets and Cotlets) and a world class historical museum.

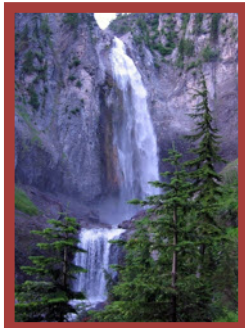

The Pioneer Village contains 20 original structures from the 1800s including interior artifacts. The museum has a Wine and Gift Shop showcasing Washington wines which we will enjoy! We now travel to Leavenworth, a quaint Bavarian

Village nestled in the magnificent Cascade Mountains. Our hotel, the Bavarian Inn, is one block from this architecturally perfect town designed as a Bavarian village with specialty shops, Germanic fare and charm for our exploring pleasure. Wiener Schnitzel, anyone? (Google Cashmere, WA and Leavenworth, WA)

Day 2

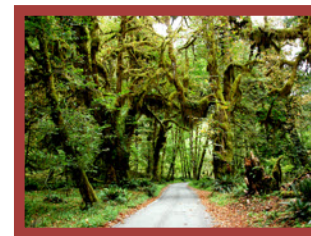

Off to Portland! On the way we'll stop at several waterfalls as we travel to a national treasure, the Columbia Gorge. Lots of photo opportunities!! When we get to Portland we will do a city tour, if time permits. This evening we'll have an included dinner cruise on the Columbia River. Our lodging for the night is the Embassy Suites

Included Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 3

Today we travel to the Quinault Rain Forest, where we'll see the "Valley of the Giants" and learn about this unique forest and its inhabitants. We'll see beautiful Lake Quinault, created and fed by glaciers. (Go to www.quinaulttrainforest.com) We continue to Westport, a quaint fishing village only recently discovered by tourists. overnight will be in Ocean Shores. The nearby casino runs a shuttle to our hotel, which is an option for the evening.

Included Meals: Breakfast

Day 4

We travel back to Seattle today and have lunch and shopping time at Pike Place Market. This evening we will have an included dinner at a nice restaurant and will over night at the Double Tree near the airport. The hotel offers a shuttle to the airport for those flying out the next day. The Double Tree also has a lounge so we can have a farewell drink together to celebrate our fabulous tour of the special Northwest Splendor.
