

Giants of North Wales Ireland Tour Extension 2017

5 DAYS
HALF BOARD

£499

26th - 30th June

Harmony Travel, LLC

Your holiday itinerary:

Monday 26: Take the ferry from Dublin to Holyhead and onward by coach to Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwyrndrobwllllantysillliogogoch, before crossing into North Wales for a guided tour of Caernarfon Castle. Then onwards to your hotel to relax before dinner and an informative talk on The Giants of North Wales!

Tuesday 27: A full day out visiting Britain's smallest Cathedral. Then a boat trip across the Pontcysyllte Aqueduct, 'The river in the sky'.

Wednesday 28: A day at leisure to make the most of 'Market Day'. Or head to the Auction for Antiques and Collectables. After an earlier dinner, enjoy a rehearsal by the Mold & District Choral Society.

Then allow them to sit back as you sing for them!

Thursday 29: A full day out visiting Bodnant Gardens, then a trip on the Mountain Railway. Tonight is Welsh night including a visiting Male Voice Choir.

Friday 30: After breakfast we transfer to Manchester Airport, after a short stop in Chester.

Beaufort Park Hotel.

Located in the North Wales Countryside, a few miles from the market town of Mold, this hotel offers a great welcome and a friendly atmosphere.

The Beaufort Park is ideally situated in the North East of Wales close to the City of Chester with Snowdonia national park among other attractions nearby.

Price includes the ferry ride to Wales from Dublin, ground transportation four nights in the hotel, breakfasts and all dinners, plus touring, sightseeing and entertainment. We'd fly home from Manchester, England. (We'll drive on the motor coach from Shannon to Dublin to reach the ferry at a nominal cost which will be divided by the number going to Wales.)

2919 N. Bayshore Dr., Seneca, SC 29672 (864)888 - 2512

Tour details are subject to change and have been arranged in conjunction with Just for groups!

The Old Bakery, Queens Road, Norwich NR1 3PL
T. 01603 886740 www.justforgroups.co.uk

